The Asian Center for Women's Studies, Ewha Womans University, Korea, welcomes applications for the Master of Arts in Asian Women's Studies Program to start in Fall 2020. Please disseminate this to any potential applicants.

Course Overview

Asian Women's Studies (AWS) is a master's degree program for international students offered in English. AWS seeks to train professionals and equip them with feminist knowledge and perspectives derived from and applicable to the realities faced by Asian women. As an interdisciplinary program, its faculty members come from diverse disciplines such as women's studies, history, literature, political science, education, geography, regional studies, theology, and law. Although the main subject of study is "Asian women," AWS does not limit its scope within the regional boundaries of Asia. Adopting the perspective of tricontinental postcolonial theories, AWS encourages its students to reconceptualize Asia and Asian
